

A man with long blonde hair and a black cap is riding a jet ski on the ocean. The sun is setting in the background, creating a warm, orange glow. The man is looking out at the horizon.

THE GRINGO SHOW

CAN TELL EVERY KIND OF STORY!

Stupid humor. Elevated humor. Meta humor. Class conflict. Travel. History. Animal rights. Cultural appropriation. Sexuality. Good vs. Evil. Spirituality. Evolution. Trauma. LGBTQ+. Social media. BIPOC. Geopolitics. Mental health.

Anything and everything can happen on vacation!

In Paraíso, we use tropes and stereotypes to our advantage! Do not fear them, lean into them, and through comedy, we can break them down and redefine them for a new generation of viewers. Evolution is at hand!

A TASTE OF DRAMA, DRAMA, DRAMA...

- Stories will offer us insights into the state of the world today and how to evolve beyond it by changing the way we think about ourselves.
- VACATIONERS GONE WILD! Booze, sun and Viagra, complicate good intentions with evil actions. We dramatize vacation horror stories!
- Magical realism exists in Paraíso! Dolphins can talk! Miracles are possible! Celebrity & athlete cameos are as common as the ocean waves!
- Build bridges, then burn them down! Reconciling different perspectives is challenging. How can we learn from one another? Tequila shots!
- Our main characters each suffer from unhealed trauma; in order to escape Paraíso, thou must KNOW THYSELF anew! Many would rather not.

NO ANIMALS WILL BE HARMED IN THE PARADIGM SHIFT

Blending live puppeteering, programmed behavior and artificial intelligence to create unique, believable experiences.

The goal is to lead by example using real-time animatronics to create hyper-real creatures capable of delivering any performance you can imagine.

Edge Innovations supports the proper care of animals by telling their stories safely, all the while promoting the ethical treatment of dolphins still in captivity.

ALL OF THE FUN,
NONE OF THE CONTROVERSY.

PILOT: "JUST ANOTHER DAY IN PARADISE"

MORAL OF THE STORY: EXPECTATIONS VS. REALITY

- Six months into Mitchell & Paloma's Mexican dream: a day in the life.
- Mitch accidentally discovers a duct-taped bundle of contraband cash on the shore, which Paloma accidentally takes (without Mitch knowing).
- Paloma joins M.E.N - A spiritual group, 'Mass Enlightenment Now' seeking to heal the world of toxic masculinity and generational trauma.
- Mitch gets trapped in a circle of hell at the gas station while a jet ski catches on fire.
- A fridge explosion nearly kills a local worker, who's rushed to the clínica. Will he survive?
- Karanne lusts for anything on two legs, including Mitch and Paloma.
- Roberto accidentally steals money from the business to fix his broken car, forcing Mitch to take a tough but compassionate stand, trying to be the boss.
- Mitch races home to save himself from prison as the Navy and Police search their home on an anonymous tip. Romeo, en route to a party, fails Mitch in his moment of need.
- Cartel thugs threaten and extort Mitchell's business behind his back. Manolo proves himself an honorable man.
- Mitch saves a drowning child from certain death.
- A raging karaoke party caps off a wild and sexy night!

SEASON ONE STORY ARC

THE GRINGO SHOW

What happens when a dream becomes a nightmare?

- We follow Mitchell's painful struggle as he grows into the man he must become in the face of extreme challenges. His hero's journey takes place in an adult Disneyland for dysfunctional expats, where strong supporting characters represent specific archetypes of humanity (ruler, sage, artist, innocent, rebel, lover, wizard, hero, explorer, jester, every-man, caregiver).
- Paloma finds herself obsessed with a new spiritual fad almost weekly as she struggles with her social media addiction and travels into the (magical realism) metaverse!
- We showcase Paraíso's high stakes, big reward tourist season.
- Every episode is a day (or week) in Mitch's life as he battles the odds to build his business amidst a comedy of errors and heartfelt lessons.
- Mitchell begins to climb the mountain to profitability by fighting the system, fighting the elements, fighting his partner, fighting broken jet skis, fighting tourists, fighting bad influences, fighting fake friends and even fighting off the cartel!

THE GRINGO SHOW VAULT OPENS

WITH SO MUCH TO EXPLORE, THIS IS JUST THE TIP OF THE PROVERBIAL ICE CUBE SINKING INTO THE DEPTHS OF A STRAWBERRY JALAPEÑO MARGARITA!

EPISODES UPON EPISODES...

- A Polish mobster wanted by Interpol befriends Mitch.
- Sargasso creates an ecological and economic disaster.
- A hurricane party is the hottest ticket in Paraíso.
- Mitch nurses an injured street dog back to health.
- A boating explosion demands ill-advised jet ski heroics.
- Manolo must fight off sharks to save a Japanese family.
- Bad karma haunts a thieving, selfish tourist.

...SEASONS UPON SEASONS

- Mitch and Paloma become vacation realtors to save the business.
- A sunken Spanish galleon puts friendship and greed at odds.
- Mitch takes on cartel thugs leading an extortion racket.
- Clueless Gen Z developers deface sacred Mayan land.
- Senior citizens monopolize the golf cart market, then get ambitious.
- A pack of unsupervised children threatens to overtake Paraíso.
- Misguided eco-warriors attempt to free captive dolphins.

THE GRINGO SHOW

...SERIOUSLY?

Why use a potentially pejorative term that labels an entire group of people based on perceived character, attitude and behavior as the title of our show?!

Because stereotypes exist and are used every day to rationalize hurtful behavior, validate prejudice and justify hostility towards groups of people, which ultimately keeps us from getting to really know, and more importantly, love each other.

THE GRINGO SHOW's intention is to break down illogical fallacies which reflect and create fear to reveal the heart of our shared community & humanity by celebrating love.

Explore the Mexican dream from a lens of comedy, heart, humanity, drama, pain, suffering, consciousness, spirituality, sex, love, hate and compassion. Including jet ski terminology, repair, maintenance and care. This is the "working" vacation you've been waiting for!

All our characters, locals and gringos alike, must evolve beyond unconscious thought patterns by building bridges and sharing ideas, music, language, lifestyles and perspectives.

THANK YOU!

I AM INCREDIBLY GRATEFUL FOR YOUR TIME AND FOR THE OPPORTUNITY TO SHARE THIS PROJECT WITH YOU. THE NEXT ROUND IS ON ME!

I HOPE YOU ENJOYED THIS VISION OF A DREAM, OF A VACATION THAT WE CAN EMBARK UPON TOGETHER...TO CHANGE THE WORLD. ONE JET SKI RENTAL AT A TIME.

HABLAMOS PRONTO!

SALUD!
